MEMORANDUM FOR Region, Brigade, and Battalion Commanders, U.S.
Army Cadet Command

SUBJECT: The Corporation for the Promotion of Rifle Practice and Firearms Safety, Inc. (CMP) Scholarships for Army
JROTC/SROTC Cadets

1. The CMP will provide scholarship assistance to encourage and reward outstanding and deserving students in JROTC and SROTC programs who also excel in a rifle team program at their schools. CMP seeks applications from undergraduate students enrolling in a college or university in pursuit of a four-year degree.

2. This year, CMP will award a maximum of 100 one-year scholarships for $1,000 to Army, Navy, and Marine Corps JROTC and SROTC applicants. Scholarships awarded will be based on merit and financial need. Students and previous winners must complete an application to receive a scholarship.

3. Scholarship winners must remain enrolled in SROTC, maintain a 2.5 cumulative grade point average (CGPA), continue to participate in college rifle team activities, and meet the good moral character standards of the nomination eligibility.

4. Nomination Eligibility:

- a. Be a United States citizen
- b. Be of good moral character
- c. Demonstrate academic excellence evidenced by a minimum 2.5 CGPA
- d. Be pursuing a four-year degree:

(1) High school senior in JROTC who will attend a college or university and enroll in the SROTC program.

(2) College freshmen, sophomore or junior and enrolled in Army ROTC

e. Have an observed need for financial assistance to complete their baccalaureate degree.

f. Demonstrate excellence as a current member of a JROTC, high school, SROTC, or college rifle team; plan to continue as a member of the ROTC or college rifle team.

5. Completed application packets will have the following:

a. A completed application form

b. An official transcript (high school or college), as appropriate. If the applicant is a transfer student, the transcript must include all colleges and/or universities attended.

c. Three Letters of Recommendation, i.e., faculty member, employer and friend/family member. See application form on who may submit letters of recommendation.

Note: Faculty members are civilian employees at the university or college/high school. JROTC/SROTC Cadre members are not considered civilian faculty members; however, they could be in the category of an employer or supervisor, in some cases.

d. Letter of Nomination from the Professor of Military Science or Director of Army Instruction (DAI) or Senior Army Instructor (SAI). This is separate from the three letters of recommendation.

e. Documentation of marksmanship or rifle team activity (program of team meets, pictures, newspaper articles, certificates, letters from school official or coach).

6. Application Instruction:

a. Applicants must complete the Civilian Marksmanship Program Undergraduate Scholarship Application Form. Application
